POQUETANUCK SCHOOLHOUSE Hallville People Have Big Petition Desiring to Rescind Vote to Rebuild on Old Site.

The residents of Hallville concerned one burned at the time of the Lucas mill fire are to make at least one more attempt to have the new schoollouse located more in the center of the district than if it were rebuilt on the old site. A petition signed by forty of the Hallville people has been given to the Preston selectmen call-ing for another meeting to rescind the vote taken at the meeting of Nov. 23, when it was voted to rebuild on the old site.

The Preston selectmen have accord ingly called a town meeting for next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the matter of rescinding the vote and the purchase of a lot as the business to be transacted. The Hallville people have been dissatisfied with the prospect of rebuild-ing on the old lot, as they claim the schoolhouse should be located nearer Hallville, as that section contains a good proportion of the children who attend school in the Fourth district. The coming meeting will make the fourth or lifth that has been held in an attempt to get the matter of the schoolhouse settled.

> EMPOWERED TO BUILD BRIDGE Town Meeting is Told That New Steel Structure Would Cost from $3,800 to

A town meeting for Sprague was held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the hall at Baitic, called specially to take action upon the building of a bridge over the canal of the Baltic mills at the foot of Depot Hill, to re-place the wooden bridge there that has outlived its usefulness. John O. Dono-van was appointed chairman and Town Clerk Arthur P. Cote was clerk. After an extended discussion of the subject, a vote was passed authorizing the selectmen to proceed to get bids and have the bridge built and to borrow such money as needed. This action was taken after a repre-sentative of the Berlin Bridge com-pany had explained what could be done in constructing a steel bridge. He estimated such a bridge as was wanted could be built for from $3,800 to $4,200 and that his company could complete it in from four to five weeks, because it had material on hand that could be it had material on hand that could be used in the construction, taking it from some work that is being done in the western part of the state. The steel bridge he spoke of would be of the truss type, single span of 73 feet, with concrete floor. It would have a 20 foot roadway for horses and a six-foot walk for foot travel, separated from the road by a railing.

Suggestions were made about a bridge of reinforced concrete, which would cost from $8,900 to $11,000. A concrete bridge, however, could not be built without building abutments in the

MYSTERY IN DEATH

OF DAVID B. HUSSEY ound Dead in Cell at New London Police Station-Medical Examiner Says Skull Was Fractured.

Considerable mystery is attached to the death of David B. Hussey of Prov-idence, who was found dead in his cell at New London police station Sunday night. According to the police, by-standers prevented him from jumping from the railroad bridge over the Thames river Sunday afternoon. He was taken to police headquarters and locked up on the charge of intoxica-tion. Sunday night when a policeman went to see him in his cell, he was found dead. Medical Examiner Lee said that death was caused by a frac-tured skull.

An Odd Fellows' card showed him their month will expire. The new rooms will be made very attractive and a piano will be installed with other furnishings. The new rooms will be kept up at an expense less than the other quarters.

He had $200 in money in his pockets and a diary. An examination of the fatter showed that he had lost his wife last August and judging by the character of the entries since that time, he had brooded over her loss.

A card was also found in his clothing which said: "This man is very dear to me. In case of accident notify Myrtle F. Caffery, No. 50 Harrison street." No city was mentioned. to be a member of a Providence lodge. He had $200 in money in his pockets
